Application Questions

◊ Luke chooses to include Paul’s testimony of meeting Jesus 3 full times in the book of Acts - why does he think it is so important?

◊ Luke places Paul’s vision next to another vision that Peter has about eating unclean animals - what connects the two visions?

◊ What seems obvious to us 2,000 years later was not at all obvious to the early church - why were these two life-changing visions necessary to get them started?

◊ Why was Paul quickly causing as much trouble after meeting Jesus as he was before?

◊ How like or unlike Paul are you? Why does God choose people every generation that can be difficult to be around but are world-changers?

◊ Why did peace settle on the churches in Judea and Galilee when Saul became a follower of Jesus and was sent home to Tarsus for his own safety?

◊ For what work is the Lord preparing you? For what work did he prepare you that you need to get going on?
